

Listing Service Agreement

Luxe Purses offers a unique Listing service where you pay a low fixed amount, up front, to list your authentic Designer Handbags and Accessories for sale, on our website LuxePurses.com, and your choice of our other online storefronts at Portero.com, or eBay. These different selling venues give your item multiple exposures to potential customers. Our Listing Fees are generally at least 50% less than traditional Consignment Fees. By signing this Agreement and listing your items with us, you agree that Luxe Purses will attempt to sell your item for a flat Listing Fee plus processing costs. Here are our Listing Agreement Guidelines:

Merchandise Must:

Be an authentic Designer Handbag/Accessory • Be in new/mint/gently used condition • Have a resale value of $300 or more. Luxe Purses will not accept an item for listing if it does not match our high quality standards.

In order for us to accept your item please submit preliminary photos via email for consideration, or email us with descriptions of your items. You may mail us your items, for consideration, but if they are not accepted you will be responsible for return shipping costs.

Here's How our Listing Service Works:

1. Email us about your item at sales@luxepurses.com. (Send photos if available.)
2. When you receive preliminary approval, please ship your item to us, insured and with tracking.
3. Your item will be authenticated and pricing will be set based on the condition and what you would like to sell it for.
4. We will take professional photos of your item and post them on our website with descriptive information and measurements. We will handle all inquiries on your item and will also ship the item once it is sold. Each item will be posted on our website for a minimum of 120 days.
5. At 30, 60 and 90 days you may choose to discount your item to potentially bring about a quicker sale.
6. Once a sale is made and finalized you will be mailed a check for your portion of the sale, minus Authentication Fees and processing charges (See next page for examples of credit card or Paypal fees, and website Commission fees.) Your payout check will be issued 14 business days after payment for your item has cleared our bank. A detailed receipt will be provided to you along with your payout.
7. If your item does not sell after 120 days, you can extend your listing for a nominal charge of $10.00 per month, or we will return your item to you. (Customer will be responsible for payment of return shipping and Authentication Fees.)

You may cancel the Listing Service at any time. However, the Listing Service Fee is non-refundable and the cost for Authentication Services and return shipping will be your responsibility.
